When your child was born, you decided to have them baptized as Catholics; to as a family share in the prayers, practices, and traditions of the Catholic Faith. When your child entered kindergarten or first grade, you entrusted us to assist you with your child's faith journey. More and more, it is becoming obvious to Catholic educators and religious that parents are the primary faith sharers with their family. That is why we have done Family workshops two or more times a year. Continuing to move in that direction, Fr. David and I have decided to include a few opportunities for families to share in special activities of the parish with their children. If you have any questions at all, please call me at 674-2180 and Dayna or I would be happy to assist you.
